

THE CLIENT: Insurance

A large, fast growing national insurance and annuities provider.

THE SITUATION

The Client simultaneously faced challenges ranging from heavy production, installation of new systems, moving hundreds of people into a new home office, and overall significant company growth. Further complicating these massive challenges was a pervasive corporate lethargy for change and innovation.

THE SOLUTION

The Client engaged Dynatos Global to breakthrough the resistance to change and inject a fresh passion for employee productivity and engagement. Within the context of an off-site management planning session, Dynatos Global advised and coached the leaders in how to embrace positive change for themselves and their teams. Additionally, Dynatos Global guided the executives in how to integrate several business best practices into their culture.

THE RESULTS

Through the combination of best practices integration in leadership, culture and employee engagement, the Client experienced significant growth and an immediate surge of employee productivity and operational quality improvement.
